FROM THE PAST

Millsaps College was founded in the year 1890 by Major R. W. Millsaps. It has received a rich heritage from the past. Opening its doors in 1892, with an enrollment of 149, a constant growth has produced the physical plant of education witnessed today in this book.

Buildings, Equipment, Faculty. This is important. But it is the students and their caliber to whom we address this book and the Challenge of THE SEARCH.

STARTS

A LANDMARK

THE SEARCH THROUGH THESE GATES

The search for truth through education is the very reason for the being of Millsaps College. This College—Faculty, Student and Plant, has influenced the very being of this great nation. From this campus have gone forth the trained minds, who have become active in church, state and nation. For there the search goes on, and each person is a part of his community.

AND THESE HALLS

AS THE PRESENT PASSES

Millsaps College is mirrored in the progress of Mississippi, the south and the nation. It benefits from the wisdom of the past, and uses skillfully the present to shape the future. A better plant and faculty is a constant endeavor on the campus, where we seek to produce better citizens through the training of more capable students.

THE PRINCIPLE MUST BE

DEDICATED

DR. ALFRED PORTER HAMILTON

Dr. Alfred Porter Hamilton stands a mighty pillar in the institution of liberal arts. Educated in America's and Europe's finest universities, he has poured into Millsaps College the wealth of his experience and spirit. Dr. Hamilton stands a scholar, disciplined in a multitude of fields. He brings to his classes a rare combination of the classic and the modern, the scientific and the poetic—a sterling example of Plato's harmonious self. Dr. Hamilton defines education in terms of teaching from the "over-flow"—the over flow of constant research and human experience. His smile is gentle and warm; it symbolizes the positive atmosphere and patient faith of his Christian character and dedication to education. His Platonic idealism is drawn from the spring of music, the richness of literature, the perspective of history, and his practiced presence with man and God.

FOR THE SEARCH EXTENDS

AT WORK

The search is continued in each class at Millsaps. In lecture or lab. The student can advance his or her knowledge through a close association with faculty and fellow pupils.

IN THE FIELD

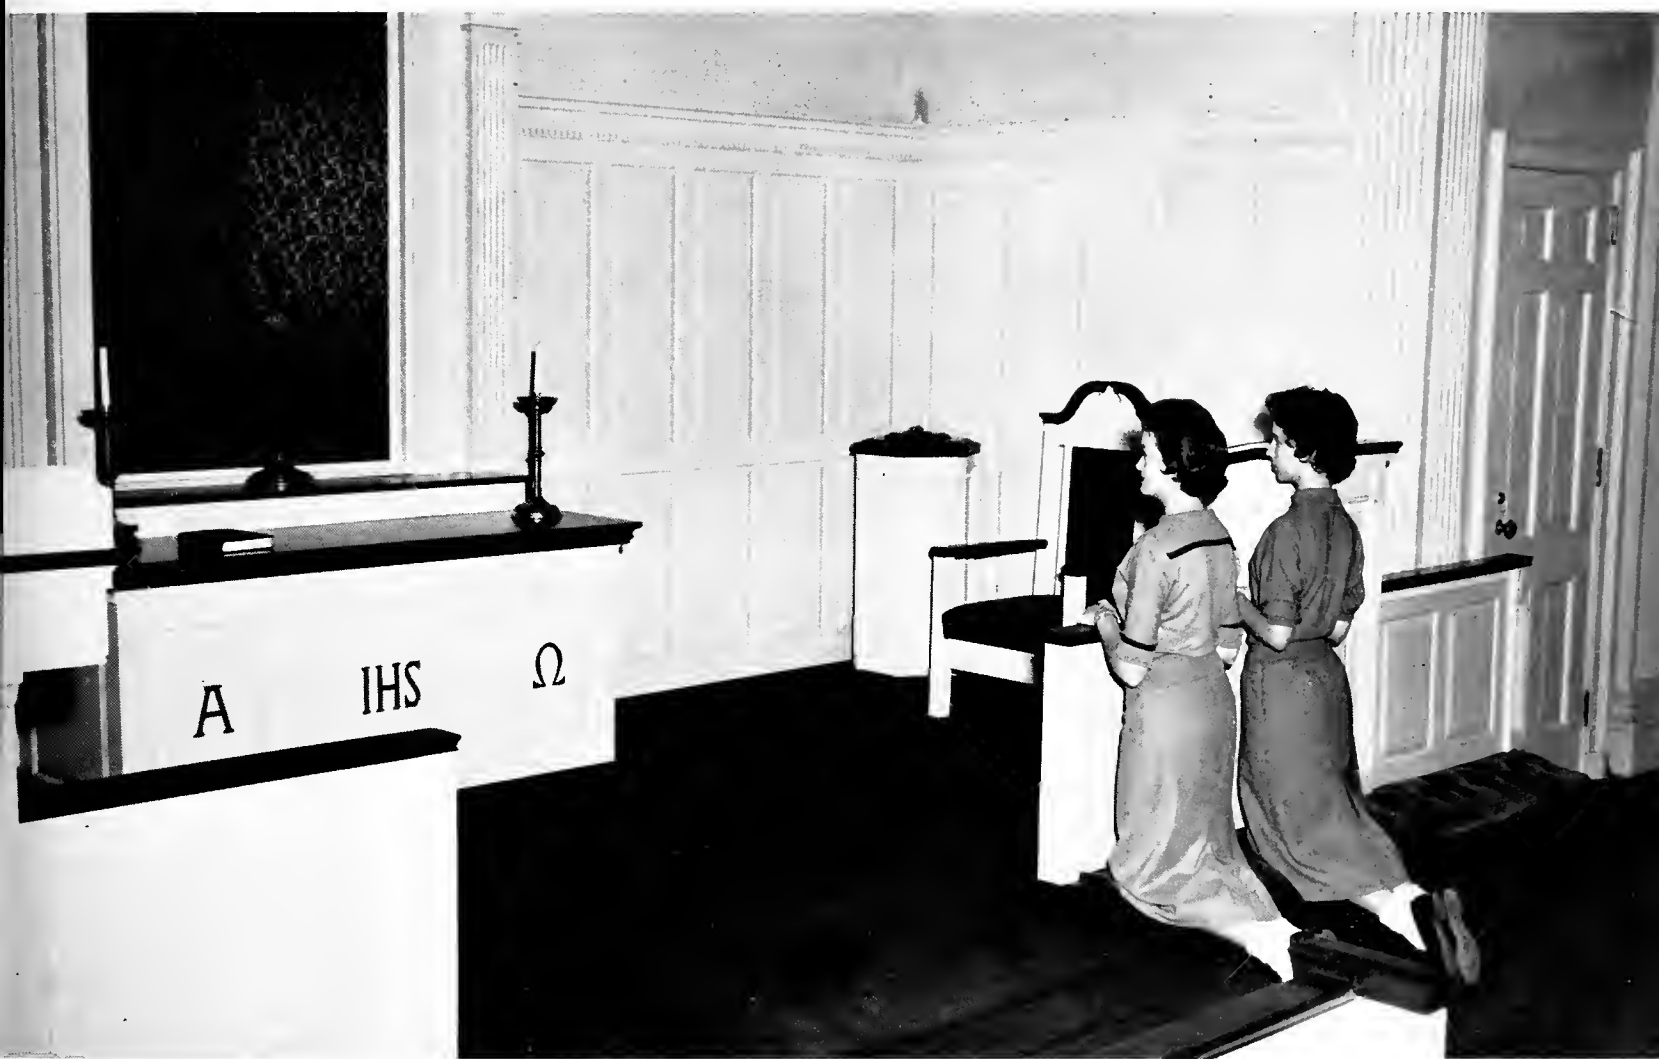

Theory is placed into practice. Pictured is a typical field trip in the geology department where the practical application of lessons learned well are carried out by the individual.

AND AT PLAY

Under the conditions of freedom of choice, which exist at Millsaps, the student discovered that self-discipline is a requirement of good citizenship. The student who learns early to put first things first finds that he is successful in his studies, active in extra-curricular affairs, and able to enjoy the proper amount of social life.

TO THE FUTURE

IN RELIGION

Since its earliest day, Millsaps College has sought to inspire the students with a vital Christian faith. Faculty and staff members are Christian churchmen who believe that mental, social and physical growth can best be obtained by emphasis on spiritual truth. Because of this philosophy, the Christian religion is an integral part of our campus life.

Through activities students develop the qualities of leadership and understanding which prepare them for the responsibilities which await them in the future. In addition to experience in preparation for life students are introduced to life itself.

THIS IS THE SEARCH AND THIS

After all, isn't education a search? These buildings, these books, this faculty—a source to draw upon knowledge. Education—a better way to prepare for the life ahead? Thus, consider always, to seek the best for our community and ourselves, constantly reminded of the verse in the opening page of this book: "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make ye free."

MRS. MARY B. STONE

Mrs. Mary B. Stone, Associate Professor of English, and for many years Dean of Women at Millsaps College, died on December 19, 1956.

Mrs. Stone was a graduate of Randolph-Macon Woman's College where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree. From George Peabody College in Nashville, she received her Master of Arts degree in English in 1928. She came to Millsaps College in 1931 as Dean of Women, and as a member of the Department of English. She served as Dean at Millsaps until 1952. After that date, she devoted her full time to teaching.

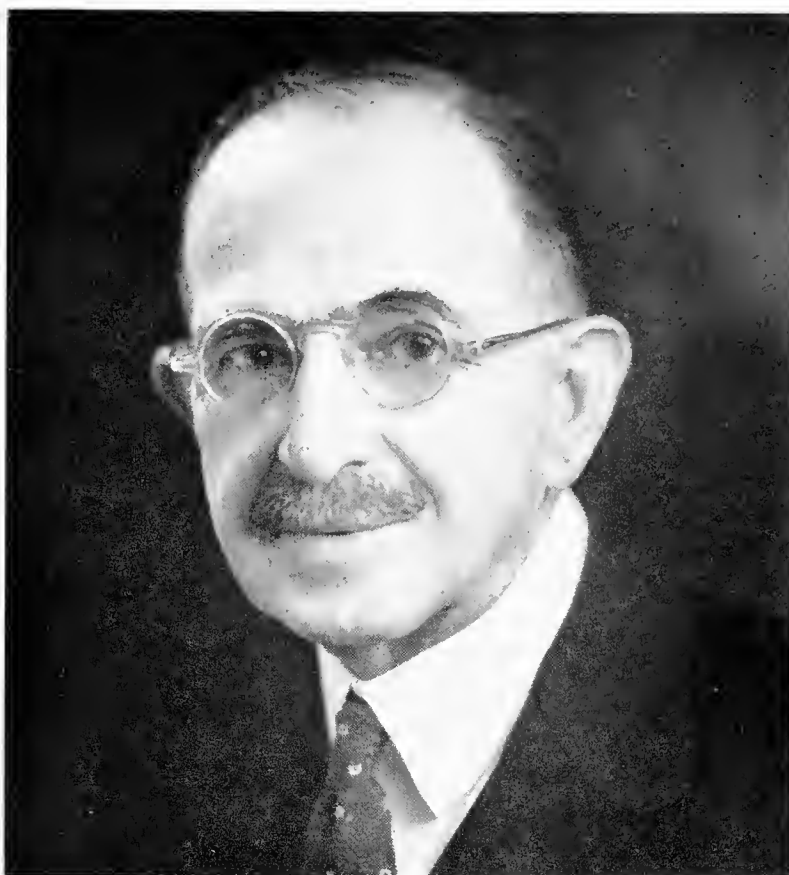

Her students of many generations testify to her gracious manner, her scholarship, and her sympathetic interest in their educational growth.

Her President says of her that she was "known and admired by students and faculty alike for her devotion to high principles, her strength of conviction, her intolerance of mediocrity, her impatience with slothfulness, and her insistence on excellence. Her refreshing frankness and her pointed observations on any matter under consideration will be missed."

Mrs. Stone was a person of wide learning and of keenly intelligent mind. Her genuineness won the love of many and the respect of all. She was frank and honest in expressing her opinions, and impatient of all unreality and pretense. Her many friends found her unfailingly generous and loyal. She was a person of integrity, and of great strength of will.

Knowing full well the precarious state of her health, she refused to husband her waning strength. She was careless of the prospect of death, and chose to live fully and usefully to the very end. At eleven o'clock on the final day of recitations before the Christmas holidays, she taught her last class. Before that hour next day she was dead. Her brave and independent spirit had dreaded helplessness and dependence far more than death. I am sure it was as she would have wished it.

★ — IN MEMORIAM — ★

JOHN MAGRUDER SULLIVAN

Dr. Sullivan's life spanned almost a century of service to God and the Church, not only in local and statewide connections, but in its ecumenical sweep.

He was a charter member of the General Board of Lay Activities, and as a Conference Lay Leader for a quarter of a century, an outstanding leader in all Methodism, in this area of service.

He was a delegate to many of the larger assemblies of the Church, such as: General Conferences, Jurisdictional Conferences and General Boards.

But he found his metier in Christian Education. He organized a class of Millsaps College boys in connection with the Sunday School of Galloway Church early in the century.

He taught Chemistry and Geology as phases of God's Divine Revelation to many generations of college students, quoting to them our Lord's saying, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free," as proof that science and religion are equally facets of the great body of Truth.

One of his old students says of him:

"Dr. Sullivan endeared himself to us because he took a personal interest in his students. He shared his moral and spiritual inspirations with us. He inspired our confidence."

He was a great Christian and a great teacher.

With its representative membership, the S. E. B. controls all matters which are delegated to the student body by the administration, and sets the policy for all student body activities in order that they may be conducted for the best interests of the student body as a whole, and to the credit of the college.

THE MILLSAPS PLAYERS

The Players, Millsaps Dramatic group, has become one of the nation's outstanding college dramatic groups. Headed by Lance Goss, The Players consistently produce first rate plays, and bring favorable attention and publicity to the college.

This year, The Players produced Shakespeare's OTHELLO, Rogers and Hammerstein's SOUTH PA-CIFIC, and Turner Cassity's THE INVERTED YEAR. The Players, in conjunction with Alpha Psi Omega, produce the Players Workshop which consists of three one act plays directed by members of the student body. The highlight of the 1956-57 season was the production of SOUTH PACIFIC. With only three weeks to rehearse, The Players were able to stage SOUTH PACIFIC, and break all previous Play attendance records.

THE 1957

Gray hairs, revised layouts, trips to Alabama, and hard work on the part of the staff is what produced the 1957 Bobashela. Peggy Perry and her notebook, and Billy Kerr and his camera were familiar sights around the campus. Julian Rush and his never ending Senior writeups, and Eddie Williams and his copy were familiar sights in the office. An office covered with copy paper, cigarettes, and coffee cups was our working area. This is the editorial story of The 1957 Bobashela.

MADRIGAL SINGERS

The Millsaps Singers, directed by Holmes Ambrose, is the organization for those students interested in and proficient in singing. On Campus, The Singers provide the music for chapel period, and entertain the community with concerts.

The Singers serve as the travelling public relations department for the College. Each year the Singers take their annual tour, and are heard, seen, and enjoyed by more people than any other campus organization. The tour not only provides the College with favorable publicity, but also serves as a reward for the students.

TOUR CHOIR

MILLSAPS BAND

SAM JONES, JR.
Director

The Millsaps Band, under the direction of Sam Jones, furnished the student body with excellent musical entertainment throughout the school year. Performing at all home football games, the band boosted our school spirit, and provided entertaining half-time programs. Events looked forward to, and enjoyed by the college are the annual Christmas and Mid-Season Concerts given by the band.

The rapid growth and success of the band is due mainly to the untiring efforts and musical talents of Sam Jones. During the year, Millsaps acquired the services of a full time band director, Mr. Fred Purser, and in the years to come this organization should continue to grow and furnish excellent entertainment for the college community.

One of the highlights of the year was the acquisition of the new Jackson Wesley Foundation House for meetings. Christmas was highlighted by the sponsoring of a campus-wide caroling party which went to the Methodist Children's Home and the Baptist Orphanage, and a project for the children at Bethlehem Center. IN MEMORIAM

FREDERICK WAYNE RENFRO

Wayne accomplished more in his short life than many who have lived the full span of years. Denied the use of a vigorous and healthy body, he went through life without complaining. He never advertised his misfortunes, neither did he complain of his ills.

With bravery, fortitude and confidence he faced life and drew unto himself a most devoted group of friends, he knew what many will never know, for more real love and devotion was poured into his heart than to many who were more able to command free access to wide circles of society.

Loved ones revered him, friends honored him, all who knew him respected him. Possessed of a rare and vibrant mind, desiring knowledge, he made the best of the opportunities opening to him.

BILLY GULLEDGE

On March 5, 1957, Millsaps College was saddened to learn of the death of Billy Gulledge. He was a friend to all who knew him. In years to come when we think back on our days at Millsaps, our thoughts will include many memories of Billy. Humanity will suffer a loss as Billy would have soon been in Medical School, and eventually would have been serving mankind. Taken from us in the flower of his manhood, he will always be an example of a happy, sincere, and dedicated student of Millsaps College.

Millsaps began its 1956 football season with a good start, taking Ouachita by a 13-6 win. Don Williams in the first quarter tossed a neat 47 yard pass to Terry Moore for the first score of the season. Soon after in the second quarter Roy Wolfe went out on a pitchout and went over from the two. Although Ouachita did manage to score once, it was Millsaps all the way — the statistics showing the Majors 15 first downs to their opponent's 3. The game proved that Millsaps was going to be a strong threat.

On their second start the Majors suffered from their only noticeable weakness from the preceding week, pass defense. In this game Millsaps lost a close one to Livingston State by the score 16-6 — both touchdowns being on pass plays. The Majors' only score was on a pass interception by Smiley Rateliff. Millsaps threatened once more, but could not reach pay dirt, and thus, suffered from their first defeat of the season.

Millsaps Closes In

A fired up Millsaps' team went to match prowess and their enthusiasm paid off as Millsaps won its second victory. An intercepted pass in the final minutes of play gave Millsaps a 13-7 come-from-behind victory. The Majors had made their first score, after being behind the whole first half, on a beautiful 47 yard run by Bob Carraway. Millsaps outplayed Sewanee on the ground but the defensive work saved the Majors, because three times Sewanee was within their 20 yard line.

Millsaps the next week began strong and trounced the Howard Bulldogs the first part of the game, letting them have the ball only three times the whole first quarter. Millsaps had several long, sustained drives, which later paid off in the point column. Still later, Smith went for the third score after Ratcliff recovered a fumble on their 10 yard line. Howard, however, hit with several passes to tie the score. On the ground it was all Millsaps gaining 233 yards to Howard's 87. Coach Bartling saw that Millsaps' weakness was in their pass defense, and with Miss. College coming up, he saw the need to tighten up.

Millsaps, perhaps, had their greatest accomplishment as they held their arch rival, Miss. College, to a scoreless tie. Millsaps' defensive unit was in top form as they held the Choctaws time after time from their goal line. Early in the second quarter Millsaps held M. C. for 4 downs on their own 5 yard line. In the final minutes of the fourth quarter Millsaps took over the ball on their own nine yard line and from this point moved the ball up the field only to have the time run out. Although Millsaps did not score themselves, the game was a noble tribute to the defensive work of the Majors' line.

Rusty Up The Middle

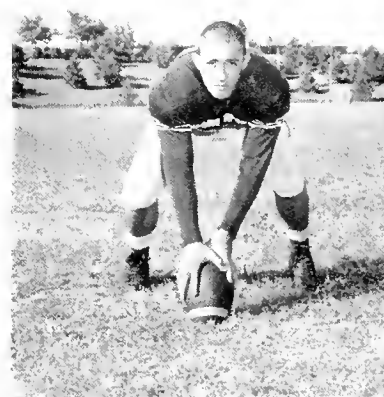

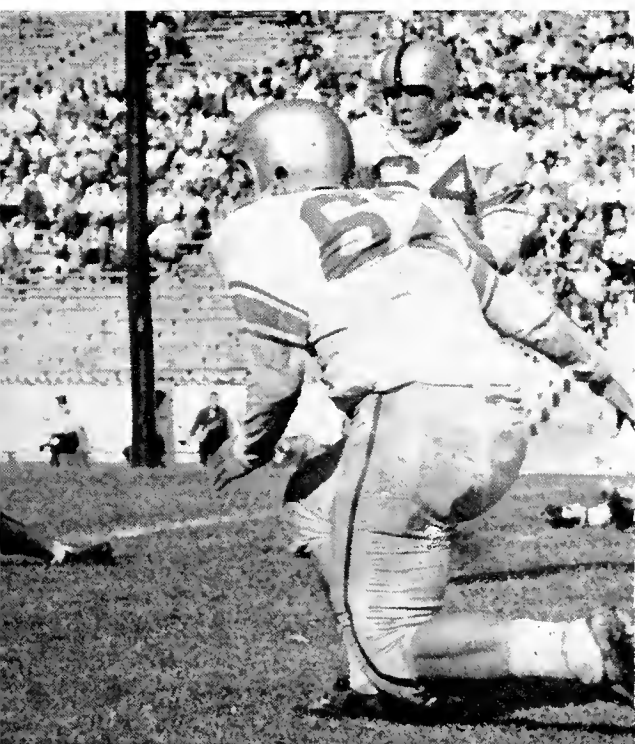

Millsaps came back hard to shock and beat the three touchdown favorite Southwestern 12-0. Both scores came late in the fourth period with Fred Belk going over on the last play of the game for the second score. One other time the Majors drove to the Lynx three to have a pass intercepted in the end zone. The defense, which had shown up so well the week before, responded again and allowed Southwestern to go nowhere. Statistics showed Millsaps completely dominating the field, compiling almost 265 yards to Southwestern's 106. Millsaps finally had gone all the way to reach their highest potential!

Millsaps Breaks up the Pass

Millsaps closed the 1956 season with a close 19-17 loss to Henderson State. It was a revealing game showing the promise of a new quarterback in Fred Belk, who passed to Wolfe for two touchdowns. After Henderson went ahead, Millsaps drove down to the goal line once more only to have a pass intercepted in the end zone. Thus, the Majors finished the season with 3 wins; 2 ties; and only 2 losses, both close ones.

Millsaps loses only four men this year and should really be strong the following season, strengthened by the new group of Freshmen. The season just goes to show what 27 men can do when they really love the game.

BASKETBALL

The 1956-57 season of basketball at Millsaps was brought to a successful close winning two out of the last three games. The quality of play improved as the experience of the boys increased, until the Millsaps quintet was operating as a smoothly precisioned unit. Long remembered will be Ray's deadly set shots, Park's command of the backboard, and Henson's hustle on the floor. Equally important was the consistent high scoring of Eddie Whaley. Millsaps can be proud of the aggressiveness, the determination, and the will to victory of these twelve men.

A successful season cannot be measured only by a list of won and lost. The success of a team goes deeper — down to the hearts of the coach and the players. This is what will bring our team up. Backing this will be the youthfulness of our squad. Of the twelve man team seven of them are Freshmen and the other five are Sophomores. With more time spent in working together and more actual game experience there is great hope for the future. It's a trite saying and well worn out but, "Wait till next year."
